

Walteria News Notes

Mrs. Mollie Dowd, the usual author of this column, is at Harbor General Hospital, preparing to undergo surgery. She will be in the hospital at least two more weeks. While she is there Mrs. Mary Riggs and Mrs. Ethel Mosley will be at the library to serve patrons in Mrs. Dowd's place. We all wish Mollie a very speedy recovery and hope she will be back on the job before too long.

Halloween was a very busy time for this town. Many parties were given in celebration of the occasion. The J.F. Club had a Halloween costume party early in the celebrations. Mesdames Anne Loughridge, Helen Conze, Louella Lassen, Elsie Minor, Edith Buckingham, Eva Kelly, Della Armstrong, Bessie Stoneker, Carl Cramer, and Lorine Harline were among those in attendance. Mrs. Harline won the costume prize for her interpretation of a tramp.

Another Halloween event was the "Halloween Roast" given for about 20 young folks by Sharon and Jimmy Robinson of Newton street. Roast wieners, marshmallows, cake and punch were served, after which all of the group went "trick and treating" together.

Of course, one of the biggest events on Halloween night was the carnival sponsored by the P.T.A. This was a great success and was enjoyed by young and old alike. The youngsters went mostly in costume and many of them won prizes for their creations. One such prize went to Tommy Howard, as Humpty Dumpty. The boys were very busy, especially the one serving hot dogs, coffee, etc.

Other parties on Halloween night included the party given by the Gordons at 24027 Neece avenue for their two daughters, Colleen and Moreen. Approximately 20 young people attended this Friday evening gathering. They enjoyed themselves eating roasted wieners and playing various games. All came in costume.

Birthdays also were in the limelight this week. Sonny Gore celebrated his eleventh birthday on Nov. 4. The party was held from 3 to 5 p.m. The children played games and had refreshments. Among those present were Dale Williams, Fred Myer, Bennie Hunter, Jimmy Hunter and Jackie Hunter of Walteria, and Pete Welton of Torrance. The party was held at Sonny's home on Neece avenue.

Another birthday party was a celebration for the "teen folk." The party was given at the George Corey residence on Park street for the Coreys' son, Kurt, who was having his fourth birthday. About 14 friends were served refreshments, given favors, and entertained at games.

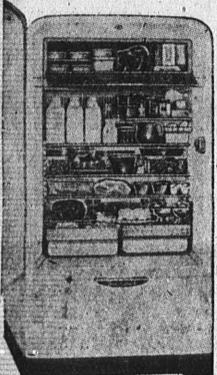

The Pandora Club held its installation at its recent party in the Walteria Recreation hall, the following officers being seated: Mrs. Francis Taylor, president; Mrs. Maxine Snow, vice president; Mrs. Dorothea O'Brien, recording secretary; Mrs. Neva Wanda, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Thelma Woods, treasurer, and Mrs. Edith Pendleton, historian. The table was decorated with the club colors, yellow rose buds, with lavender streamers, making a very beautiful setting for the event. The hostesses were the outgoing officers; Mesdames Kirk, M. M. Gordon, George Powell and Joe Snow. The group enjoyed excellent entertainment, which included electric guitar playing of "Drifting and Dreaming," "Hawaiian Sunset" and "Hawaiian War Chant" by talented Terry Deiner of Redondo Beach. His sister Susan gave a fine performance, playing a medley of accordion waltzes and polkas. Mrs. George Peters of Ward street pleased the group by singing "Mona Lisa" and "Everywhere You Go." Mrs. Jean Ewers of the A-1 Building Supply on Highway 101, was welcomed as a new member. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Stevens in Palms Verdes on November 29, with Mrs. Dale Wanda and Mrs. James Whitner as co-hostesses.

Peggy Jo Meacham spent a very profitable Sunday at Little Hills Saddle Club in Lomita. She came home with the blue ribbon in Western Pleasure Horse, second in Junior Horsemanship, and third place in the Walk Trot, Canter event. Another Walteria teenager won first place in Junior Horsemanship. He was Carol Aulfield of Pacific Coast highway. Congratulations to both.
